

Study Through the Bible

A House of Wisdom – Study 4

PARTICIPANT'S GUIDE Advice to Youth

Give your life to wisdom, and wisdom will give life to you.

Youth is not defined in the Bible by age, but rather by status (married or not, living at home or not). The verses we will look at in this study describe how the inexperienced and naïve should give their bodies (eyes, ears, heart, feet) to wisdom in order to experience life in its fullest. The Book of Proverbs is written for young people. Those of us who are older need to show our youth how they can apply wisdom in their lives.

Scripture:
Proverbs 4:20–27

Based on:
"A House of Wisdom," Series Builder by Jeffrey Arthurs, PREACHING TODAY SERMONS

Christian
BibleStudies
.com

PART 1

Identify the Current Issue

Throughout this course, we have constructed a house called wisdom that we define as the knowledge of God which leads to living godly in conformity with the divine character. In this study we will complete the first floor, focusing on advice to youth. We will be looking at the need to give every area of our lives to God.

PART 2

Discover the Eternal Principles

Teaching point one: Give your ears and mouth to wisdom.

Teaching point two: Give your eyes to wisdom.

Teaching point three: Give your heart to wisdom.

Teaching point four: Give your feet to wisdom.

PART 3

Apply Your Findings

The only way that youth, or anyone else for that matter, can possibly know which way to turn in life is through the wisdom of God's Word.

—Study written by Jeffrey Arthurs, with JoHannah Reardon

